

The Daily Gazetteer.

SATURDAY, APRIL 30 1737.

NUMB. 573

11^o 576.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from Holland.

LETTERS from Petersburg say, That General Heim has been sentenced by a Council of War to be shot to Death, for neglecting an Opportunity he had of beating the Army of the Tartars in the Crim, if he had attacked them in the Night while they were asleep; but 'tis thought the Czarina will give him his Life.

Letters from the Frontiers of Turky, by the Way of Poland say, that the Grand Vizier was sent out for Bender, together with the Scratkier General of the Forces, after having assured the foreign Ministers, that the Porte continued in a Disposition for Peace, and that the Reason of his going to Bender, was to be nearer at hand to contribute to the Success of the Negotiations that are to be carried on for that End on the Russian Frontiers between the Plenipotentiaries on both Sides: Yet, according to these Advices, the Turks seem resolv'd to open the Campaign with all their Forces, so that 'tis believ'd they'll venture a Battle, before they will think in good Earnest of renouncing Alop. And 'tis probable, that it will not be long before we shall hear of a Battle, since Letters from the same Quarter tell us, that the Russian Army is march'd in three Columns to attack Oczakow, and that the Turks are moving that Way to defend it.

At the same time Letters from Vienna say, they have Advice, that the Grand Vizier declared to the English and Dutch Ambassadors in his Camp, that there was nothing in the World which the Porte would not do to avoid a War with the Emperor, &c. Their Letters from Belgrade advise, that the Turks quarter'd on the Frontiers scarce amounted to 20,000 Men, and those raw and undisciplin'd; the Turks having sent the best Part of their Forces against the Russians.

The Letters from Vienna add, that the Counts Beckendorf, Kevenhuller and Philippi, and the Duke of Aremberg, are declared Vice Marshals of the Emperor's Army.

Letters from Hamburg say, that the City of New Brandebourg, in the Dutchy of Stargard, is almost entirely consumed to Ashes; and from Stockholm, that on the 29th of March, O. S. was a great Fire at the Town of Jokkoping, or Jenckoping, by which the Castle, Church, Chancery, and several Building, were likewise burnt down to the Ground. This is a Town of Smalcande, one of the Provinces of Sweden. The Fire first broke out in the Arsenal, and burnt with such Vehemence, that the whole Building was in Flames in less than half an Hour. The Ammunition in the Magazine, which consisted of a great Quantity of Bombs, Cannon Shot, and Gunpowder enough for 40,000 Men, blew up with a terrible Noise, and some of the Splinters were carried as far as the Governor's Houle, which was half a Quarter of a League off; and the Wind blowing strongly that Way, the same was soon burnt to the very Foundation; but this Wind, tho' so fatal to the Governor, saved the Town, which wou'd otherwise have soon been reduced to a Heap of Ginders, all the houses being of Timber.

'Tis observed in the Letters from Germany, that April has been a fatal Month to that Country, by reason of Fires. On the 13th, O. S. a Fire broke out in two Places very remote from each other, viz Brandebourg above-mentioned, and at Tambach, in Dutchy of Gotha; of the former, above one half was burnt, and no less than 150 of the latter. Broel, part of the Elector of Cologn's Offices and Kitchens belonging to the Castle were burnt; and besides the Fire at Patack, in Upper Hungary, (mention'd in one of our former) a Fire broke out the 23d of April at Waitzen, in Upper Hungary, which 32 Houses were burnt.

ther Pox or Clap, as Thousands have experienced.

medies

N. B. Reason and Experience first recommended it to the

(For the Satisfaction of all Persons, who are fearful and doubtful of using any Publick Medicines)

That there never was, nor will be, a good and beneficial Medicine published to the World, without finding Enemies, whose Interest it is, not only to decry and vilify, but often to counterfeit it; and the better the Medicine, the greater the Opposition: Therefore all doubtful People should have Recourse to Experience, the infallible Tester of Truth, without Prejudice or Partiality. Let them enquire of the Success of the Medicine, either where it is sold, but rather of those who have used it; and if they are informed the Effects of it answer the Intentions, let them freely use it, without regard to what Malice, Interest, or Prejudice may suggest against it.

Motto to LAURE'S Scheme.
Advertisement concerning this Book.

This Masterpiece of religious Policy was published, many Years since, in Latin, French, and Dutch: Mr. John Schipper, a Bookseller at Amsterdam, bought one of them at Antwerp, among other Books, and afterwards reprinted it. The Jesuit, being informed that he had purchased this Book, demanded it back from him; but he had then sent it to Holland. One of the Society, who lived at Amsterdam, hearing it said, soon after, to a Catholic Bookseller, by Name Van Eys, that Schipper was printing a Book which concerned the Jesuits, replied, that if it was only The Rules of the Society, he should not be under any Concern; but desired he would inform him what it was. Being told by the Bookseller, that it was The Secret Instructions of the Society, the good Father, strug-ging up his Shoulders, and knitting his Brow, said, that he had no other Remedy but denying that this Piece came from the Society. The Reverend Fathers however thought it more advisable to purchase the whole Edition, which they did afterward, some few Copies excepted; from one of them it was afterwards reprinted, with this Account prefixed, which there said to be taken from two Roman Catholics, Merit Credit.
